

Faces of Asylum

An exhibition about fleeing persecution, finding refuge and being able to dream again

Faces of Asylum is an emotionally moving photographic exhibition that aims to dispel the myths around refugees. The exhibition has been touring capital cities and rural centres across Australia. Stories of fear and of hope from families such as the Dad and Wazefadost families who fled Afghanistan due to persecution and death threats, are told through a series of striking family portraits.

Refugee Week 2014

Exhibition open from 16 June 2014 to 5 July 2014
Shoalhaven Libraries, Nowra
Berry Street, Nowra
Free entry

Special Event World Refugee Day

5pm, 20 June 2014

Nowra Librray

- Stories from Refugees
- Launch of the Berry Action Group

Amnesty International Berry Local Action Group
info@berryamnesty.happenings.id.au

AUSTRALIA

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

