

MARY MEETS MOHAMMAD

A documentary about fear, friendship, compassion and the power of knitting

Mary Meets Mohammad is the story of Mary, knitting club member and committed Christian who meets Mohammad, a Muslim Afghan asylum seeker after he is detained at Pontville, Tasmania's first detention centre. Local community members such as Mary meet the opening of the detention centre with hostility and fear. But the gift of beanies, hand knitted by club members to help weather the cold Tasmanian winter have an unexpected outcome. Rated PG.
